I'm Simon Harding and I was born and raised in Williams. After finishing a Bachelor of Business and a year's travel I returned to the family farm north of Williams where I now live with my wife Bronny. Together we run a mixed farming business as well as an export hay processing plant.

I have two children, Rachel who completed her Masters in Forensics and has now joined the Police Force and Oliver who recently completed a Bachelor of Agribusiness, travelled and worked for a year and now is back in Williams to join the family business.

I want to see our Shire and Community remain prosperous and vibrant for the future generations. I am seeking re-election to council to continue the tasks and committees that i have previously been involved in and found rewarding and to continue contributing fresh ideas, listening to the community needs and to bring another perspective to problem solving.
